Prospective volunteers are advised that they require a certificate attesting to their health from both their doctor and dentist. The ICEJ's medical insurance policy is limited and does not cover all aspects of medical care or any dentistry. Restrictive clauses are in place and you therefore need to satisfy us of your full health. Should you have a medical pre-condition which does not preclude you from taking up a position at the ICEJ, such pre-condition will not be covered by the existing ICEJ medical insurance policy, but will be for your own account, during your time at the Embassy.
