HELPING HAIFA FIRE VICTIMS

Thanks to the generous donations of Christians around the world we’ve been able to respond in 6 different ways to the needs of many victims in Israel.

78 beds have been distributed to families who need to replace furniture damaged in the fires.

181 emergency folding beds have been provided for elderly people and families evacuated during the fires.

1,000 dollars was given to 20 families whose home was either lost or severely damaged in the fires.

38 refrigerators were delivered to families who lost essential appliances during the fires.

15 washing machines were given out to families in need.

150 blankets have been given out to keep victims warm as they now face winter weather after the fires.

HELPING HAIFA FIRE VICTIMS

There is still much work to do and many people to reach. The ICEJ is proud to be your hands and feet in Israel today when her people need our help.
